Stoddart Students Score Huge Success in Colorful Ballet

Capacity Audiences Pack Junior High at Third Annual Dance Display

PRESENTED TWO NIGHTS

The ballet, "Kitchen on Parade," given by pupils of Lucille Stoddart last Friday and Saturday scored a tremendous success and packed the auditorium of the Junior High School, Ardmore, both nights.

The production was outstanding for excellent dance routines given with the sureness and precision of a professional group, as well as the unusually good scenery, lighting and costuming.

In the first act, the curtain went up on an attractive group of the "younger set" with their escorts who were enjoying a midnight snack before finishing the last few dances.

In this novel way Miss Stoddart introduced her ballroom classes in several dance numbers which were delightfully informal. The girls were so attractive in their party dresses and their dancing was so graceful to watch that it is to be hoped this innovation will be enlarged upon in future performances.

The stage was decorated by the Philadelphia Electric Company to represent a mammoth modern electric kitchen with black and white tile walls, a nine-foot refrigerator, stove, sink and cabinets.

The beautiful lighting effects, which added much to the performance, were also arranged by the Philadelphia Electric.

Too much cannot be said in praise of the costumes designed by Miss Stoddart and made in her costume department in New York. They were colorful, exotic and sometimes bizarre, but always interesting and exceptionally well done.

Among the outstanding ones were the fuzzy little chicks in downy yellow feathers and caps from which realistic yellow bills protruded.

Ready Kilowatt was startling in black and silver and a huge bulbous head and an immense electric bulb winking on and off.

Then there were crisp green lettuce leaves in green tulle ballet costumes and a realistic tomatoe who turned out to be excellent ballet dancers.

Ice cubes in silver transparent gauze boxes, and the dinner gong, in salmon and yellow tulle, caused admiration. The dancing chorus of Mexican Jumping Beans were colorful in gay flowered skirts, red bodices and aprons.

The floppety mop looked exactly like one in her costume of white satin covered with rows of white chenille fringe, while scotch short bread was an adorable lassie in kilts.

In the group appearing as bluing, clever costuming was seen when the dark blue satin skirts were reversed and made red and white stripes. The excellent teamwork and rhythm made this an outstanding number.

The Russian costumes worn in Peppy and Salt were stunning. The white satin edged in white fur and worn by the Russian girl made a decided contrast to the black satin worn by the Cossack.

Father Duffy on Sunday to Offer Mass Unchanged Since 6th Century

Following his ordination at Trenton, N. J., tomorrow the Rev. James Joseph Duffy, of Narberth, will offer his First Solemn High Mass this Sunday morning at 11:15 o'clock in St. Margaret's Church, Narberth. He is the first young man from St. Margaret's parish to enter the priesthood.

He will be assisted by the Rev. Francis Fox as Deacon, the Rev. Cletus Gates as sub-deacon, the Rev. Vincent Hamilton as arch-priest, Jerry Perkins, a theological student from the Vincentian Seminary in Princeton, N. J., and a member of St. Margaret's parish, will act as master of ceremonies.

The Rev. W. Kain will deliver the sermon.

After the celebration of the Solemn High Mass, there will be a formal breakfast held in Green Hill Farms, Overbrook. Donovan O'Hara, the Irish tenor and radio singer, will entertain those present. Among the 300 invited guests there will be visitors from many distant cities.

As explained by one of the clergy at St. Margaret's Rectory this week, "the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is the oldest form of Christian worship extant today; it dates back to the very days of Christ and is a combination of the Last Supper and the Sacrifice on the Cross on Calvary. During the early centuries it was naturally subject to a process of formation. In its present form the CANON of the Mass has not been changed, or added to, since the time of Pope St. Gregory the Great, who lived in the sixth century. "The Canon of the Mass embraces liturgical prayers of unparalleled beauty and sublimity. It is the most solemn, the most mysterious, portion of the Holy Sacrifice. The word CANON is derived from the Greek, and signifies 'rule,' 'order.' It comprises the FIXED forms of the prayers of the Mass. Sayings of Christ and Apostolic traditions form the groundwork of the Canon. Hence, the Mass is in the truest sense the Prayer of God's Church."

Boro Legion Plans Dedication May 31

Frank A. Schrepfer Given Full Authority to Proceed With Plans for Grouping

Frank A. Schrepfer was empowered to act as necessary to insure completion of the Memorial Grouping at Wynnewood and Windsor avenues, Narberth, in time for its dedication on May 31. Full authority to proceed was voted to the general chairman by members of the Harold D. Speakman Post, American Legion, Monday night at their April session.

New aides in the project, appointed by Commander Frank J. Dwyer, are Arthur L. Cooke, in charge of moving the flagpole, and Henry A. Frye, who is responsible for moving the monument from its present site in front of the borough library.

Mr. Schrepfer outlined the great amount of work that must be accomplished during the next four weeks. An invitation from the Rev. Cletus A. Sentt to attend Memorial Services at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church on May 30 was accepted.

Commander Dwyer assumed the chairmanship of the Memorial Day Parade Committee when several members declined the appointment. He named as his aides Arthur L. Cooke, co-chairman; Burns Best, Vincent Cunningham and E. L. Paxson.

New members recently admitted to the post, which now numbers forty-four, are Irvin T. Ward, Kenneth Bovee, Frank G. Foltz and E. L. Paxson.

"Nancy's Private Affair," one of the real New York comedy hits of recent years, will be presented by the Narberth Players at the Narberth Public School Auditorium May 7 and 8.

Grace Werner as Nancy is starred in the play so humorously written by Myron C. Fagan. This same character was originally played in New York at the Vanderbilt Theatre by Minna Gombell.

The cast, under the direction of Martha Lindsey Simpson and her co-director, Jane Nash, has been preparing for the production, which will mark the fifth and last presentation of the Players for the current year.

The scenery for "Nancy's Private Affair" will be executed by George Werner, Joe Hongler, George Supple, Bob Estes and Bill Hand, with set-

M. L. Players Present Second Play Tonight

"Accent on Youth" to be Given by Talented Cast in Cynwyd

The Main Line Players will present their second play of the season, "Accent on Youth" at the Woman's Club of Bala-Cynwyd Saturday night.

The cast includes Miss Betty Fuller, Miss Jane Fuller, Miss Eleanor Dick, Messrs. William Nichols, William Liggett, Jr., David Taylor Roderick, William Tuttle and Robert W. Smith. The play will be directed by Charles E. Goodman, Jr.

Miss Betty Fuller has had four years' experience with Hedgerow Theatre. Mr. Nichols has appeared with the Philadelphia Playhouse and the Chestnut Hill Players, and has played with the Cosmopolitan Players in Maine.

"The Dover Road," given by the Main Line Players in October, was extremely successful and their present production promises to be equally finished.

The goal of this group is ultimately to establish themselves in a playhouse of their own where more plays may be produced each year for the enjoyment of Main Line lovers of good theatre.

The patronesses for this performance will be Mrs. Van Court Carwithen, Mrs. H. L. H. Dick, Mrs. Nathan Myers Fittler, Mrs. Sara K. Fuller, Mrs. Robert M. Girvin, Jr., Mrs. Charles E. Goodman, Mrs. E. H. LeBoutillier, Mrs. Robert W. Liggett, Mrs. Carole B. Nichols, Mrs. James W. Oakford, Mrs. William C. Tuttle.

Bridge Cost Agreement Signed

Formal agreement as to the division of costs between Lower Merion Township and the borough of Narberth for work on the Rockland avenue bridge project was signed last Saturday by James M. Brittain and Henry A. Frye, respective solicitors for township and borough.

Cost to Narberth will be $500 plus the expense of acquiring a plot of ground at the span from Joseph Russell, Jr., whose property will be condemned if a settlement cannot be reached. Lower Merion's expense will be over $1200.

Rising Costs Halt Tax Rate Reduction in School District

18-Mill Levy and $2 Per Capita for 1937-38; $115,000 Budget Adopted

PLAN NURSING SERVICE

Narberth's School Board at its April session adopted a budget of $114,914 for the school year of 1937-38 and retained the tax rate of 18 mills on property valuation and $2 per capita.

While the budget is slightly over $10,000 less than the figure for 1935-36 the directors finally decided not to reduce the rate due to the danger that rising costs of materials might cause financial embarrassment during the coming year if revenue was curtailed.

Expenditures for new floors, lighting, desks, books, playground and athletic equipment are planned for the coming year.

For the first time in five years, teachers were given a salary increase—a flat $50 per annum in each case. Their pay cuts early in the 30's have been restored, partly in 1935 and partly last year.

All members of the teaching staff were re-elected with two exceptions. Mrs. Lois Wunderlich Ziegler, fourth grade instructor for the last six years, is retiring from teaching, while Miss Helen E. Force, fifth grade teacher, has accepted a position in the high school at Middletown, her home town.

It is hoped during the next school year to have a part-time nurse in attendance.

According to Dr. W. Steckbeck, secretary of the board, school district collections and finances are in the best shape of a decade.

Dr. LeRoy A. King, president, presided at the meeting.

Bala Realtor Tells About Himself Before Rotary Club

An old Rotary custom was indulged in by Charles L. Campbell, Jr., Bala realtor, who on Tuesday was called upon to give his autobiography before the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Club, at the Overbrook Golf Club.

Mr. Campbell, 29, youngest member of the club, was born in Philadelphia, received a bloody nose fighting over a bicycle at the age of four. His family moved to Oaks when he was seven and he lived the life of a country boy six years until 1920. He graduated from Lower Merion High School in 1926 after winning letters in soccer and baseball.

While at the University of Pennsylvania, he found campus politics "much less than local politics here." At Penn he was chairman of the Ivy Ball and on the undergraduate council.

After jobs with the General Electric Company and the Insurance Company of North America he entered the real estate business in 1933.

W. James Drennen, president, presented birthday flowers to Wayne D. Burnside and to L. Stanley King.

Men's Shop Will Open on Saturday in Narberth

James Stanton, who is well known among the business men of the community, this Saturday will open his Narberth Men's Shop at 121 North Narberth avenue.

Carrying a complete line of shirts, hosiery, ties and other furnishings, the shop is expected to fill a need in this section. Mr. Stanton also is representative for Simpson's made-to-measure clothing.

"Go East" for One Evening

The Senior Luther League of Holy Trinity Church invites all members and friends to enjoy a special service Sunday evening, when Miss Nora M. Diehl will speak on the subject "Are Missions Worthwhile?"

Miss Diehl, who is secretary for Young Women of the United Lutheran Church in America, will have pictures and curios from China and Japan where she visited mission fields last summer.

Wins Basketball Numerals

Daniel J. Hess, Jr., of Narberth, a freshman at Penn State, was recently awarded his numerals as a member of the yearling basketball team.

A Cultural Experiment

"What this country needs is more dishwashing songs," Carl Sandburg told a Narberth audience last Friday evening after he had sung such a number that dated back over one hundred years. The noted poet, in fact, expounded a most sane philosophy in addition to his diverting readings from "The People, Yes"; his talk gave further evidence that the radicals of yesterday often become the sages of today.

Frankly, though, this writer was disappointed. Not in Mr. Sandburg, but in the number of vacant seats in the Narberth School Auditorium which seats at most a scant 300 persons. At the nominal admission charged, we expected to see the place packed.

However, this was but the first of the Narberth Library Association's proposed series of lectures by literary celebrities and future events may prove more popular with borough residents.

Father Duffy on Sunday to Offer Unchanged Mass

"Father Duffy, as a priest of the Catholic Church, has received power to do precisely that work on earth which Christ did while trodding the paths of the Holy Land. He is now the ambassador, the legate, the vicar of Christ.

"He is, as we say, an Alter Christus—'Another Christ.' He has received authority to teach, govern, bless; he will reconcile sinners to God in the Sacrament of Penance; he will offer sacrifice. In a word, he will open Heaven to mankind by means of the Sacraments, in which the spiritual graces of the Redemption are stored up as in an inexhaustible treasury chest. The Church, in the Ordination ceremonies, warns the candidate of the responsibilities of his high calling. His relatives and friends wish him success and God's special Blessing."

Prosperity at Autocar

The Autocar Company, motor truck manufacturers at Ardmore, report earnings of $146,328 for the first quarter of 1937, compared with a loss of $23,494 for the same period of 1936. The company entered the second quarter with unfilled orders sufficient to sustain the first quarter's high rate of production for the next two or three months.

In the Schools

On Saturday morning about 9.45 a large group of children met at the station to go into the Erlanger Theater to see "Toby Tyler." With them went three teachers, Miss Miesen, Mrs. Ziegler and Mr. Lehman. Everyone returned to the school by one o'clock and all enjoyed the play immensely.

In the Youth Activities contest and exhibition sponsored recently by the Public Ledger, the seventh grade of last year entered the murals that they had made during art class. Now they are very proud to announce that they won first prize, a silver trophy, in the murals and friezes division for junior schools. A great deal of praise goes to Miss Gassner, who supervised and showed them how to construct these murals.

The last boys' baseball game, on April 20, was played against Easttown, at Easttown. The score was 2 to 0 in favor of the opponents. Our team made five hits and Easttown, four.

ably portrays the mother of Peggy, and it is Mrs. Preston and Peggy who start the delightful complications in Nancy's life. Cecilia Link has the role of Peggy. Bob Estes, as Sir Guy Harrington, further involves the laughable situation in Act II.

Bill Hand, who has recently shown his talents in a Players' production, has the role of Henri, whose chief duty it is to make rye highballs.

When Nancy's friends make a determined effort to reunite Nancy and Donald the production becomes a bewildering series of humorous scenes.

To say that this twenty-sixth production of the Narberth Players, which has an all-star cast, is the funniest, gayest and sauciest comedy presented in a blue moon is putting it mildly.

Dr. Rush Chapter Members Give Reports on Convention

Reports of the 46th Continental Congress held in Washington, D. C., by the D. A. R. were given by several members of the Dr. Benjamin Rush Chapter at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, on Dudley avenue, Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Frank R. Lindsay, regent of the chapter and delegate to Washington, gave an account of the opening of the congress, and Mrs. Verna R. Woodcock, the alternate delegate, of the trip to the White House.

Other members who attended were Mrs. R. A. Mizner, who represented the Alabama Chapter at the congress; Mrs. H. C. Cook, of Cynwyd; Mrs. Stewart Anderson, who was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Pope during her stay there; and Miss Louise Woodcock, the newest member of the chapter and who came to Washington from Hood College on Wednesday.

Mrs. Lindsay entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Louise Woodcock at the Willard Hotel. The guests were members of the chapter.

The business of this meeting was the revision of the by-laws. Mrs. E. B. Hoskins was the co-hostess.

The closing luncheon of the chapter will be held May 17.

inson as alternate.

Mrs. Robert Price, who has charge of the Mother's Day banquet, announced that it would be held at Whitehall, Harverford (the menu sounds grand!) and the date has been advanced to May 7, so as not to conflict with the convention.

A rummage sale in charge of Kay Patton is to be held on Saturday, May 8. All girls (and friends who care to!) are urged to clean house before then and donate all old clothes and "white elephants" to the cause. They will be collected May 6.

The auditors who will check the books this year will be Mrs. Betty Caldwell, Miss E. K. Crosley and Miss Kay Wheeler.

Board meeting was held last Monday at the home of the president.

This Monday night the child study group will meet at the home of Mrs. S. H. Jefferies, Jr., in Penn Valley. Mrs. M. F. Purse is co-hostess. There will be a talk on children's books.

After the "most important" election last Thursday the meeting was turned over to Miss Kay Patton, chairman of the Braille Committee, who presented Miss Jessie Royer-Greaves, of the Royer-Greaves School for the Blind (the Juniors' pet project, by the way). She gave a short talk on the school's purpose and then introduced several of her blind pupils, who sang, played the piano and showed us some of their handiwork. Entertained us so well, in fact, that surely we, who could see, felt very humble and grateful.

"Champagne Waltz," Romance of Vienna, Now at Narberth

"Champagne Waltz," a romance of modern Vienna, now at the Narberth Theatre, features rivalry between a "swing band" and an old-time waltz palace. Of course there is plenty of music, with Gladys Swarthout and Fred MacMurray as the leads, and the dance team of Veloz and Yolanda. Jack Oakie and Herman Bing also are in the cast.

Monday and Tuesday will see a return engagement of "Three Smart Girls," with the 14-year-old singing star, Deanna Durbin. Aiding Deanna in preventing her father (Charles Winninger) from marrying a scheming blond (Binnie Barnes) are Nan Grey and Barbara Read.

"Ready, Willing and Able," on Wednesday (Cash Award Night) presents Ruby Keeler and Lee Dixon in a musical comedy-romance in which complications begin when Ruby is signed to a show contract on being mistaken for an English star.

Thursday only there will be a return engagement of "Theodora Goes Wild," in which Irene Dunne plays the part of a prim authoress who decides to live one of her own gay stories.

Girl Scout News

Troop 207 met at the Merion Tribute House, April 21. Miss Patty Sanford and Miss Nancy Graham passed their observation test, a second class requirement which teaches the girls to "keep their eyes open" to all the natural wonders about them. Miss Cynthia Rowan, Christine Allen, Marian Miller, Jean Maddock and Beatrice Keegan passed their home-maker and housekeeping requirements for first class rank. Mrs. S. P. Blake-man, of Narberth, was their teacher. The group will hold a tea at their next meeting.

Ambler High School upset the dope Wednesday afternoon by trouncing the Lower Merion track team in a dual meet in the upper reaches of Montgomery County. The final score was 56 to 52. Rather close, but a defeat for the Maroon boys just the same. Times have changed. It has been a long time since schools like Ambler could take the mighty Bulldogs into camp on the cinders. To be perfectly fair, Ambler has always had a strong track squad and her teams have been dangerous competitors for all the suburban schools, but a victory over the Main Line leaders is a distinct feather in their cap.

Coach Drumm once coached the Ambler squad; so he must feel that it was just a real friendly match. If his own boys didn't win, then at least Old Alma Mater crashed through.

Coach John Fetter has been having an in-and-out season with his baseball team. Mostly out so far as the weather is concerned. The game with Haverford High School scheduled for last Friday was postponed and the battle scheduled with Norristown for Tuesday last was rained out. It will take a slide-rule decision to get in all the remaining games plus the postponed ones in the short period of time left before many of his boys are ready to don the cap and gown for the grand finals under the Maroon and White.

Lower Merion might have claimed another victory at the Penn Relays last week had not the lead-off man been unfortunate. Young Wiggins, running his first time at Franklin Field, got off nicely, but dropped his baton at a bad moment. The time lost was too much for him to make up, so the boys had to bow again to their rivals.

Wiggins' unfortunate dilemma reminds us of the race several years ago when Harvey Buck was the lead-off man for Coach Chuck Hutton at the Relays. Harvey broke away beautifully, but was caught on the elbow by a close runner and his baton flew at least ten feet to rear of the crowd. The speeding runner had to reverse his field, pick up the baton and try to make up the lost distance. The crowd was too fast for him, however, and though the remaining runners cut down the forty or fifty yards lost, the anchor man pulled over the finish line just two strides back of Upper Darby, the winner.

The Lower Merion Junior High School relay carnival held last Friday on Pennypacker Field was a decided success. Over thirty schools took part, sending into competition over five hundred athletes. The races were run off with clock-like precision. Outstanding relay teams were entered by Trenton Junior High Schools, Lower Merion, Upper Darby, West Chester, Haverford and others.

The Tartar maidens were beautifully dressed in full yellow satin skirts, the edges of which were appliqued in two shades of purple and green. They wore broad Russian headresses and boots which matched their skirts.

In the second act, the scene was laid in an old-fashioned garden.

The Modern Minuet was danced by demure colonial maids in old-fashioned flowered taffeta hoop skirts and escorts in white satin breeches, red jackets and white wigs.

When they went modern, however, they lifted their skirts to display the face of a clock on the hoops and then went into a modern tap routine.

In the Cakewalk, which closed the program, the dancers wore striking costumes of green changeable taffeta over full ruffles of flame net. The "men" wore black and white trousers, tall hats and carried canes.

The first prize for excellence in dancing was awarded to Sammy Goodall, while Harmon Friel and Brooke Friel won second place.

Miss Stoddart was presented with a traveling bag at the close of the performance from "mothers" who appreciated her co-operation and splendid work.

The accompanist for the entire program was Eric Wilkinson.

The stage managers were Harry Ryder and M. W. W. Thompson.

The ushers were Charles E. Neville, William Budd, Dr. H. Herbert Parker, Boyd T. Barnard, Paul R. Warwick, E. F. Johnston, Donald W. Fiske, Park Turner, George Peabody and Lester Lessig.

Spangler, Devon; Dr. C. W. Truxal, Wayne; and Darwin S. Wolcott, Colonial Village. Winfield W. Crawford, Esq., was appointed as solicitor and Dr. R. P. Lienhardt as sanitary officer.

Extensive improvements are under way, new seashore sand is being ordered for the beaches, the painting and landscaping will be done in an effort to surpass the fine decorating done in years previous, and the club will open its regular season on Memorial Day, May 30, as heretofore with a full staff of attendants and life guards. Application for membership may be made to the club at Box 223, Wayne, in care of Club Privilege Committee.

"I'M CAREFUL OF CHRYSANTHEMUMS"

"I've been doing telephone work in this part of town for fifteen years. Most everybody knows I'm the telephone man. I hope they know they can trust me to be careful of their property."

"One day last Fall I was fixing a wire over a lady's flower garden. As I was leaving she said, 'Thanks for being so careful of my chrysanthemums.'"

"Don't mention it, ma'm," I said, "That's part of my job to be careful. Besides I got a garden at home myself, so I know how you feel about it."

This kind of personal interest is typical of telephone employees—both men and women. For instance, we aim to handle every telephone call as though it were marked "Emergency!" Try a long distance call tonight and see how quickly and accurately your connection will be made... how clearly that distant voice spans the miles. And see how inexpensive it is—especially at the reduced rates in effect every night after seven and all day Sunday.
